

February 16, 2017 Presidents meeting agenda

1. What percent of my English do you each understand? Is my speed too fast?
2. Please ask me to repeat or give another examples or to slow down.
3. Please email and call me with questions and reminders if I am late sending information.
4. Bring flash drive with students' homework to class in case my internet is not working. Put the students' homework on the flash drive. I asked IT to fix the backup USB ports.
5. The first FB class VP or President of the day should get the computer key from Building 2 security at 7.45am come to the class and start up the computer and projector. This will give me more face time with students.
6. Do you think the quizzes will push more students to study more regularly Real Estate Finance instead of waiting to study just before the Midterms?
7. Review of common errors in team reports
8. Would students like an assignment to interview bank managers in Wuxi or their home town or their target financial service institution as the written class project or presentation?
9. Some of the USA bank or financial institutions will not be present in China.
10. It is your duty to be kind and welcoming to students who are shy, older than your majors or different. Divide the team leaders between President and VP and call one time a week to find if any questions or suggestions or problem lazy team members.
11. Both Real Estate and Banking typed homework are due by 8pm Saturday February.
12. Please come to the front of the class without me asking during the last five minutes for students to ask you questions in Chinese.
13. On a score of 1-10 with 10 the most difficult, how do you rate the Real Estate and Taxation class?
14. Your comments and suggestions on Real Estate and Banking.
15. Ask Team Leaders to remember, mark in the book where I stop each class in the book.

February 16, 2017 Presidents meeting agenda

1. What percent of my English do you each understand? Is my speed too fast?
2. Please ask me to repeat or give another examples or to slow down.
3. Please email and call me with questions and reminders if I am late sending information.
4. Bring flash drive with students' homework to class in case my internet is not working. Put the students' homework on the flash drive. I asked IT to fix the backup USB ports.
5. The first FB class VP or President of the day should get the computer key from Building 2 security at 6.45am come to the class and start up the computer and projector. This will give me more face time with students.
6. Do you think the quizzes will push more students to study more regularly Real Estate Finance instead of waiting to study just before the Midterms?
7. Review of common errors in team reports
8. Would students like an assignment to interview bank managers in Wuxi or their home town or their target financial service institution as the written class project or presentation?
9. Some of the USA bank or financial institutions will not be present in China.
10. It is your duty to be kind and welcoming to students who are shy, older than your majors or different. Divide the team leaders between President and VP and call one time a week to find if any questions or suggestions or problem lazy team members.
11. Both Real Estate and Banking typed homework are due by 8pm Saturday February.
12. Please come to the front of the class without me asking during the last five minutes for students to ask you questions in Chinese.
13. On a score of 1-10 with 10 the most difficult, how do you rate the Real Estate and Taxation class?
14. Your comments and suggestions on Real Estate and Banking.
15. Ask Team Leaders to remember, mark in the book where I stop each class in the book.